Reading Assignments

I have broken down the reading assignments in order to ensure that the entire class keeps up on the reading and is at the same point in the text at the same time. However, you are more than welcome to read ahead.

American History – You are expected to take notes as you read utilizing various methods.

Neverwhere – You will be completing Literature Circles and KHWL Charts as you read.

Allensworth: The Freedom Colony – You are expected to take notes while you read.

Occasionally, you will also apply other methods of output (i.e. outlining, mapping, annotating, etc.)
